

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DAVE QUIST JOINS THE OSBORNE TEAM

CALGARY, ALBERTA (November 8, 2017): Osborne Interim Management is pleased to welcome Dave Quist (MPA, B.Sc) to the organization as a Principal.

Dave continues to provide leadership in the not-for-profit, research and political worlds with more than two decades of experience. His senior experience is sought after in all regions of Canada. Key strengths include team building and success in raising the profile of numerous organizations. He has a proven track record to develop and implement policy as well as working with not-for-profit associations and NGOs. He brings in valuable media experience, as a spokesperson on television and radio and through multiple print formats including op-eds, as well as being active on social media. An excellent communicator, Dave has worked with elected officials and senior administrative staff at all levels of government.

ABOUT OSBORNE INTERIM MANAGEMENT

Osborne Interim Management is a results-based organization that provides clients with senior level management on a short-term basis when they are experiencing challenges during periods of transition, crisis, rapid growth or economic uncertainty.

The Principals at Osborne are seasoned executives with at least twenty years' practical experience in the workplace. Their backgrounds cover a variety of core competencies and industry sectors and they've held high ranking executive and C-level positions at companies large and small, public and private, local and multinational, as well as not-for-profit. Based in Calgary, Osborne Interim Management also has Principals operating out of British Columbia, Edmonton and Toronto.
